Committee Recommends 90 Acre Tract; Minority Report on White Park.

The building site committee of the Paso Country club has filed its report to president H. S. Potter and the board of directors, after having made a careful study of ten propositions which were submitted. The report of the committee is signed by Henry S. Mach, chairman; Richard F. Burgess, secretary; while Peyton J. Edwards, the third member, filed a minority report.

After a review of the ten propositions offered, the committee recommended the three following, in the order mentioned:

First, to exchange the 14 acres of land comprising the site of the destroyed club house with the Newland investment company, for 30 acres north of Taylor avenue and east of the intersection of Taylor and East Main streets. One of the conditions of this exchange is that the club house be erected upon the west half of block 33.

The second proposition is to buy 90 acres in the Ascarate tract, to be purchased at a cost of $11,000, payment to be made in five years, with interest at eight per cent on the deferred payments.

The third is the offer of Z. T. White, to donate to the club 100 acres of white land, located near White's Spur, about three miles above the city. This land is good and could have been used for a large golf course. The big drawback was that it is six miles beyond the reach of cheap transportation.

HUMAN EARS ARE SENT IN BOXES

Contreras Mutilates Thirty Carranza Soldiers in Durango, American Says.

A box with the right ears of 30 Carrancistas was sent to Gen. Luis Herrera, Carranza commander at Parral, Chih., with the compliments of Calixto Contreras, following the recent skirmish of the Villistas and Carrancistas in the state of Durango, 100 miles from Parral. Such was the statement of a mining representative who has arrived from the interior.

The bandits were victorious in a skirmish and capturing the Carrancistas, cut the right ears off each of the 30 soldiers. The American mining man stated he saw four of the victims of the bandits with their heads bandaged and undergoing much suffering.

At the start of a mass meeting in Parral, which might have resulted in another anti-American demonstration, word was sent to Gen. Luis Herrera, according to the story of the mining man. Herrera and his staff hurriedly left for the plaza, where the meeting was taking place, and stepping upon the platform, he forbade the meeting from going further. He threatened to shoot anyone insulting or attempting violence on American citizens in Parral. He said he would kill the first man who attempted anything that had the semblance of an anti-American demonstration and then ordered the mob to disperse, threatening to call out the troops if the crowd did not leave.

Four Americans remain at the mine where the American was employed. The mines will continue to operate.
